

State 9—Lehigh 3.

'em up steadily for State, and, although in the third inning Lehigh looked a bit dangerous, "Old State" immediately got busy again with their sticks and scored three more times.

Both nines fielded in fine fashion and the contest was an enjoyable, clean-cut affair, all the way, Lehigh's men proving themselves good sportsmen; so that the best of feeling prevailed at all times.

On Tuesday our Varsity base ball squad departed on an important Eastern trip, on which West Point, Yale, Fordham, and Dickinson are met in the order named. Our team is greatly weakened by the absence of Haverstick, who is still laid up with a bad knee, but it is hoped that he may be able to get in shape for the Dickinson game.

COLLEGE NOTES.

W. A. Laird, '07, has returned to college.

P. B. Brenneman '94, was at the college a few days last week.

The Senior Commencement committee composed of Gardner, Deuel, Jacobs, Ferver and Lytle has its plans for Commencement week almost completed.

C. L. Goodling, '07, and W. F. Stine, '08, entertained their fathers over Sunday.

The plot of ground between the foundry and the pump house is being laid out in grass.

The College Glee Club intends to give a concert during Commencement in place of the Pharsonians.

W. H. Robinson, R. H. Smith, W. H. McDowell, and E. H. Armsby, graduates of 1905, visited the college last week.

C. H. Moorhead ex-'08, spent Saturday and Sunday here. "Cal." is on his way to Sunbury where he will probably be during the coming summer.

Work on the new Phi Delta Theta fraternity house at the west end of the campus is progressing rapidly. The contractors are working hard to have the house under roof by Commencement.

Prof. Chas. L. Griffin, late Associate Professor of Machine Design at State College, but now in the Mechanical Engineering Department of Syracuse University, has recently returned from the South, and, with Mrs. Griffin, is occupying his new home in Syracuse, N. Y.

Leslie's Weekly for May 10 gives a detailed account of the Battle of Jolo in the Philippine Islands. Capt. E. P. Lawton, the former Commandant at State, took part in this battle and was engaged in the fiercest attacks upon the Moros. His picture is printed and the article gives him high praise.
