

COLLEGE NOTES.

Dr. Gill delivered the Memorial Day address at Millheim last Wednesday.

The Cotillion Club held its regular dance at McAllister Hall on Friday evening.

Mr. J. R. Woodcock, Y.M.C.A. Secretary at the College last year, is spending a few days with his old friends.

Mr. Churchill, instructor in the Chemistry department, sailed for Europe last week. He has been given a leave of absence for one year.

Dr. Atherton is improving nicely but there is little possibility of his taking part in the Commencement exercises, as has been rumored.

Chicago is to have a course in monkey-talk. Not content with Greek and Latin, the university authorities have ordered over a cargo of Simian monkeys, and an effort is now to be made to locate the language.
