

Penn. State Musical Club Concert.

The concert by the Penn State Musical Club in the Auditorium last Saturday drew merited praises from an enthusiastic audience. From first to last the whole program was an excellent one, both in choice and rendition, and the appreciated hearers encored every number.

The concert was substituted this year for the Pharsonians which has hitherto been the Saturday night attraction of Commencement week. The old minstrel show was forgotten in the enthusiastic reception tendered the Orchestra and Glee Olub. One step forward has been taken in placing the more refined music before Commencement guests and omitting the old horse-play of the Pharsonians.

Especially good were the selections by the Glee Club, "Winter Song" and the laughable "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and those by the Orchestra "It Happened in Nordland," and "Higgledy Piggledy."

R. P. Farrington, '06, rendered "The Rosary" with splendid expression, as a violin solo, and responded to an encore with "Sing Me to Sleep." The club has shown its ability and surely will be supported by the student body in the future.

On Monday night all the fraternities gave their annual Commencement receptions at their respective chapter houses.

Annual Meeting of the Phi Kappa Phi.

The meeting for initiation into the ΦΚΦ fraternity was held yesterday at 8.30 a.m. in the Engineering Building. The two honorary elections of the year were D. L. Patterson, State, '95, and Dean Frank L. Graves of the University of Missouri. At the public meeting held at 10.30 Dr. Graves addressed the meeting on the subject "Our Debt to President Eliot." The college orchestra furnished music on this occasion. The members elected from the class of 1906 are:

R. M. Caswell, A. W. Deuel, R. P. Farrington, A. L. Ferver, C. D. Flickinger, T. F. Foltz, G. C. Glenn, J. C. Gotwals, O. C. Hays, H. H. Hollinger, R. C. Landes, W. D. Lowe, N. M. Lower, W. R. McConnell, J. K. Mentzer, C. F. Noll, J. W. Quiggle, J. E. Steely, H. F. Stump, S. K. Varnes, W. H. Williams, W. H. Wolff.

1907 La Vie.

The 1907 La Vie is a little late in making its appearance but it is a good one. A great many clever and original features have been added this year by the staff, which has worked earnestly to produce a volume better in every respect than its predecessors. That they have succeeded seems evident from the way in which orders have been received.

One of the chief attractions is a characteristic sketch of each member of the Junior class, which with the other sketches and cuts make the copy an interesting one pictorially from cover to cover.

Band Concert.

On Sunday evening of the close of the Y.M.C.A. meeting the college band gave an open air sacred concert on the campus. The music was inspiring and very enjoyable, but the coming of a shower caused the concert to be cut short. Another concert is expected during the week.

Junior Oratorical Contest.

The annual Junior Oratorical Contest took place in the Auditorium at eight o'clock last Monday evening. The competition in these contests has always been keen, and there was no exception to the rule in this case.

The delivery and composition in all cases were excellent and every one of the speakers deserves congratulations.

The prize winner was John Piper Smith.

The program follows:-

1. Music, March Militaire, "The Cavalier".
2. Oration, The Need of a New Individualism, John Piper Smith, Yellow Creek.
3. Oration, Independence and Freedom, Robert Park Graham, Altoona.
4. Music, Selection, "M'lle Modiste."
5. Oration, "The Man with the Muck Rake," Punderson Avery Rainey, Laceyville.
6. Oration, Immigration and Naturalization, Calvin Johnson Adams, Stull.
7. Music, Waltzes from the "Office Boy."
8. Oration, The Man who Wins, Joseph Edward Staud, Allegheny,
9. Oration, The degeneration of the Senate, James Blair Long, King-of-Prussia.
10. Music, Intermezzo, "Poppies."
11. Announcement of Judges' Decision.

Junior Assembly.

The annual reception to the graduates by the Junior class will take place in the Armory to-night. The hall has been very tastefully decorated by Vollmer of Harrisburg. Oppenheim, of Wilkes-Barre, will furnish music for the occasion while Harrison will act as caterer. Fully two hundred couples are expected to attend this final wind-up to the Commencement ceremonies. There is a large list of patronesses, about seventy-five in all.
