

A Splendid Victory

dian's chieftain.

The Indians won the toss and selected the east side of the field, giving them the advantage of a driving wind, which blew straight down the gridiron.

At exactly 2:45 Archie Libby kicked off to State's 5 yard line, big McCleary sprinting 20 yards, and on the next lineup making 3 at tackle. Coulson got 5 at end and McCleary punted 40 yards; Mt. Pleasant fumbled, and Burns was on the ball like a shot. Hirshman cracked off 3 at guard, Burns lost one on an end try, Exendine tackling hard, and McCleary punted 30 yards. Without trying to advance the ball Mt. Pleasant punted 55 yards on the Indians' first line up, Henry getting back 5. McCleary gained 3 and Henry 1. McCleary again applied his foot to the leather for 40 yards; the Redmen got twisted up on the ball and Cyphers did the rest. Wray gained more ground with a 10 yard plunge at tackle, Hirshman 3, McCleary 4, and Coulson 2 at tackle. Then Coulson tried a field goal, but the ball went low, and the Indians got it on their 15 yard line. After one vain try at advancing, Mt. Pleasant again punted, and the ball, striking a gust of wind, sailed for 80 yards, going over Henry's head and out of bounds. With the ball on her 12 yard line things looked black for State. Hirshman, however, came to the rescue with a magnificent 30 yard plunge through the Redskins' territory, and McCleary added 3 more through tackle.

For offside play by the Aborigines State got 5 yards, and Maxwell went around the end for 4; a double pass then netted McCleary 3 more. Coulson punted 25 yards against the wind, Mt. Pleasant falling on the slippery pigskin. Mt. Pleasant gained 5 and Hendricks 2; with a stiff wind helping, Mt. Pleasant then sent out a long drop kick which went almost to State's line, where Hirshman took the ball and came back 15 yards. McCleary got a yard; then a fumble occurred and State lost 2 on Lubo's tackle. McCleary punted 30 yards to Mt. Pleasant. Then came the Indians' only material run of the day; on a long pass, the fleet Mt. Pleasant got away for 30 yards, Henry's grand tackle on State's 3 yard line saving the day. But Referee Sharpe's whistle had sounded for "holding," and the ball was brought back and State given 15 yards. A short punt was brought back 11 yards by Henry, who then gained 1 more at end. A penalty for holding now brought the ball to State's 1 yard mark. Exendine, however, became too anxious, and an offside penalty gave State 5 yards. Hirshman hit center for 6, Coulson 3, Hirshman 3; then Coulson 2, Hirshman 8, McCleary 1 and Hirshman 5. McCleary kicked the ball 40 yards, and again the Indians decided to punt on the first down. The reliable Mt. Pleasant fell back, and then came the ball, but "Mother" Dunn was there when it arrived; the punt was blocked, and Maxwell dropped on it. With the ball on the Indians' 28 yard line, Henry lay down coolly on the 35 yard mark, the ball was passed, and McCleary's foot sent over, truly and accurately the most beautiful field goal that State men have ever seen.

More happened in the next few moments among State's rooters than the world's great authors have ever been able to describe; and when the smoke had cleared away the score-board man chalked up—State 4, Indians, 0! A few moments after Libby kicked off, the half was over.
