Debating Club.

At its meeting last Friday night, the Debating Club elected officers for the ensuing year, as follows:

Braucher, '08, president; Gross, '09, vice-president; Palm, '09, secretary; Dry, '08, treasurer.

Next Friday night the trial debate will be held to pick the team which will represent State in the inter-collegiate debate. The other colleges in the league are Swarthmore, Dickinson and F. & M.

Last year State won the debate in fine style and a great fight will be made this year to retain the title of champion. All the members of our victorious team are in college and the prospects are very bright indeed. In addition to these men, a lot of new material has shown up which makes the prospect look very promising. The fight for the team will be hot, and it is expected that a good crowd will turn out to encourage the debaters next Friday night. The subject is "Resolved, That the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States should be repealed." State has chosen to defend the negative of this subject.

William Day Crockett.

William Day Crockett, the new assistant in Rhetoricals, English and History is a graduate of Hamilton College, class of '90, and also of Auburn Seminary, class of '93. He was pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Canton, Pa., from 1893 to 1901, and for the last four years has been Professor of Rhetoric and English Literature in the Mansfield State Normal School. He is the author of "A Harmony of Samuel, Kings and Chronicles," and has traveled to a considerable extent in this country and abroad.

"Please hand me the Review of Reviews," he said.

The landlady's eyes did flash,
For another young boarder looked
absently up,
And solemnly passed the hash.
