

COLLEGE NOTES.

Professor and Mrs. Pond desire to take this means of renewing the announcement that they are always at home on Saturday evenings in term time, to receive student callers, and are always pleased to see any students who may care to call at their home.

C. H. Moorhead, ex-'08, is now coaching an athletic team at Sunbury, Pa.

H. C. Duff, who was a member of the class of 1909 last year, has entered the Case School of Applied Science, Cleveland, Ohio.

F. L. Honhart, ex-'08, has been playing a strong game at right half-back for the Springfield Training School. This team has played both Yale and Harvard, holding the former to a low score.

Considerable interest is manifested in connection with the Villanova game here next Saturday. The visitors have a strong team this year and expect to give State a hard struggle.

Juniors and Sophomores who have not handed in lists of their vacant hours are requested to do so at once. Appointments in Junior and Sophomore Rhetoricals are posted on the Bulletin board in the lobby of the Carnegie Library.

The Electrical Engineering Society at its meeting on October 17, discussed the annual trip to be taken by the Electricals this year. Several papers were read on appropriate subjects.
