

COLLEGE NOTES.

On Monday afternoon, Mr. Linville and the Senior chemists started for Scotia. After a walk of about an hour or so they landed at the place from which they had started. Setting out again they finally reached their destination, but everything was closed and they were unable to accomplish anything.

Reserved seat tickets for the Thanksgiving game with W. U. P. will be put on sale this evening, and may be obtained from Manager Thompson from then on.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

This year the Y. M. C. A. offers several courses in Mission Study, courses of so broad a scope that every man in college can find a class in which to be interested and become enrolled.

All the classes meet at 1.15 p.m. every Sunday afternoon, beginning next Sunday. The courses, leader, and place of meeting are as follows:

1. The Healing of the Nations. W. T. Dunn, 126 Main.
2. Social Evils of the Non-Christian World. B. D. Kunkle, 226 Main.
3. Effective Workers in Needy Fields. R. G. Gunkle, 114 Main.
4. Modern Apostles of Missionary Byways. F. E. Wilber, 273 Main.
5. Protestant Missions in South America. J. C. Gotwals, 106 Main.
6. The Call of the Homeland. G. W. Groff and J. B. Watson, 120 Main.

All of these courses have been arranged so as to meet the needs of college men. While designed primarily for the advancement of the Christian religion, every course is interwoven with social and economic questions, showing what has been and may in the future be done toward making this world better and advancing it to a higher degree of civilization.
