

and a short kick again went to Dickinson. Davis punted 35, Henry returning 10, McCleary 2, and Burns got the ball on a short kick in brilliant fashion. McCleary 2, McWilliams 2, Henry 2, and the game was over!

A thousand loyal State men swept over the gridiron and carried their victorious heroes triumphantly to the dressing rooms. The victory was well earned; every man played hard to win. No eleven representing Penn State has ever won a cleaner, better victory than this, and Williamsport resounds with high praises of State's players and their manly, sportsmanlike methods. Dickinson fought nobly, but her team was completely outclassed in every department of the game.
