

State Collegian.

Vol. III, No 11.

STATE COLLEGE, PA., NOVEMBER 29, 1906.

Price Five Cents.

Pennsylvania Day.

Blessed with splendid weather, and graced by the presence of an unusually large number of visitors and guests of the College, this year's Pennsylvania Day was the most successful one in the history of the institution.

The observance of the day was begun by public exercises in the Auditorium at 10:30 a.m., presided over by President Beaver. The platform was well filled with invited guests, most of them State officials and members of the Legislature, and the entire faculty, in caps and gowns. Before an audience which filled the Auditorium, the following program was carried out:—

PROCESSIONAL... College Orchestra
 INVOCATION... The Rev. Dr Gill
 THE LORD'S PRAYER... Chant
 THE SWORD OF FERRARA College Glee Club
 ADDRESS... The Hon. W. B Simpson
Representative-Elect from Huntingdon County
 SELECTION... College Glee Club
 ADDRESS... Miss Kate Cassatt MacKnight
President State Federation Pennsylvania Women
 SHORT ADDRESSES...
 AMERICA... My Country, 'Tis of Thee
 RECESSIONAL... College Orchestra

Before introducing the first speaker, General Beaver addressed a few words of welcome to the visitors, especially the West Virginia football team, which played against State's Varsity later in the day.

Mr. Simpson made a very interesting and instructive address on the technical schools of Pennsylvania and the value of a technical training. Miss MacKnight made a strong plea for better facilities for training the girls of the State in domestic science, and showed how the State College was the proper place to furnish such a training. At the conclusion of this appeal, General Beaver heartily endorsed the idea,

Continued on page 3

CARL S. FORKUM, '05

West Virginia's football coach. Forkum was one of the finest athletic men State has ever had, in football, baseball and track work.

A New Appointment.

We take pleasure in announcing that at a meeting of the Board of Trustees of The Pennsylvania State College held November 23, 1906, Dr. Thos. F. Hunt, of Cornell University, was unanimously elected Dean of the School of Agriculture and Director of the Experiment Station.

Dr. Hunt has obtained leave of absence from Cornell University for the months of December and January, during which months he will act in an advisory capacity in organizing the work for the ensuing year and aiding in the preparation of a budget for the coming Legislature. He will not resume his duties permanently until July, 1907.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The Y.M.C.A. will hold a social in Room 529 Main, this evening (Wednesday) at eight o'clock. All are cordially invited to come and spend an evening of games and songs. Bring your college song books.

State 10—West Virginia 0.

Pennsylvania Day was most fittingly celebrated by our Varsity eleven on last Friday afternoon on Beaver Field by a well-earned victory over the West Virginia University team, coached by our former star fullback, Carl S. Forkum, '05. Last year the West Virginians gave us a very hard and exciting 6 to 0 game, and this time they played just as plucky, aggressive football as possible; but Old State's heroes held solidly at all stages and played elegant football, considering the fierce battle our team fought against Dickinson only a week previously. With Captain Dunn limping on the side lines, Gottwals took charge of the team against West Virginia, and handled everything in perfect style, playing such a fearless, irresistible game himself, that all the other players were inspired to their best efforts. The work of Dr. Godcharles and the officials was especially commendable, and it was a clean, enjoyable game all through.

First Half:—At exactly 2:58 Ernst kicked off to State's 25 yard line, Kunkle plunging back 12 yards. Henry gained 2 at left end, Hirshman 5 through tackle, and 5 yards was West Virginia's penalty for off-side. A forward pass went out of bounds and it was the visitors' ball. Ernst gained one, but on the next play Cyphers tackled Hinman like a thunderbolt, and "Bill" Wray fell upon the ball in the resulting fumble. Henry made one yard, Hirshman 3 and McCleary punted 30 yards, the ball falling out of bounds. Failing to gain, Ernst kicked quick-

Continued on page 3