

Pennsylvania Day

and stated that such a course would have been inaugurated here long ago if the necessary funds had been provided. He expressed the hope that the next Legislature would make it possible to start the course without further delay.

State Senators Godcharles and Hulings and General C. B. Dougherty made unusually happy and appropriate impromptu speeches. The latter commended the Cadet Battalion for its fine work at Harrisburg, and said that he was especially interested in it because the Cadet Major had received his early training under him in the Ninth Regiment.

An important feature of the occasion was the announcement by President Beaver of the appointment of Professor Hunt, of Cornell, as Dean of the School of Agriculture and Director of the Experiment Station.

Following the morning exercises, an informal luncheon was served in McAllister Hall to over a hundred guests of the college. At two o'clock General Dougherty reviewed the Cadet Battalion. He complimented Captain Hay and the Battalion very highly for the excellent showing made in the review. The victory of our football team over West Virginia and the well attended dance in the evening completed a very pleasant day for all concerned. From the standpoint of the welfare of the college, Pennsylvania Day was a great success. Many of those who will soon be called upon to decide measures affecting the institution received a new insight into our needs and the scope of the work, while many letters of regret, received from those who could not be present, expressed sympathy with the aims of the College and a desire to assist in furthering them whenever possible.

ly and B. Hutchinson fell on the oval for West Virginia. On a delayed pass Campbell threw Bayliss for 2 yards loss, and Reynolds failed to gain around Burns. Ernst punted 35 yards, Henry back 12, and West Virginia then got the ball on a forward pass. Ernst gained 5 on a forward pass, but the ball went to State because of offside play. On a quick kick of 25 yards Reynolds secured the ball, and Ernst gained 6 on a delayed pass; then a fumble occurred and Campbell secured the pigskin. Hirshman made 5 yards, Zink 5, Hirshman 8, Wray 3, Zink 2, and then State was penalized 15 yards for holding. On a fake drop kick Burns made 15 yards, and then Henry's drop kick went to the line, Reynolds carrying it back 20 yards. Hirshman gained 3, then West Virginia was penalized for holding. Ernst's punt went only 15 yards, after which Hirshman gained 3, Zink 2, Hirshman 5, Zink 2, McCleary 4, Zink 3, and it was West Virginia's ball on downs on their own one yard line,—a great stand!

Ernst's punt was almost blocked, however, going only 12 yards, and State was not to be stopped; Hirshman plunged for 3 yards, McCleary 2. On West Virginia's 5 yard line a fumble occurred, but with a beautiful plunge Campbell was on the ball, and the score stood—State 5, West Virginia 0. McCleary missed the goal by only a few inches. Here Coach Forkum substituted Kenna, West Virginia's star punter and drop-kicker, for Bayliss. Kenna kicked off to Gotwals, who tore back 20 yards. Henry one at right end, Hirshman 2, and McCleary's 35 yard punt came back 5 yards by way of Reynolds. Kenna gained 2, Ernst 2, and Kenna punted 35, Hirshman getting back 15. Then Burns carried a forward pass 22 yards, Hirshman 6 more, a fumble lost 2 yards, Zink 1, and it was West Virginia's ball. But when the visitors attempted a forward pass Reese secured the oval for State, then McCleary gained 3, Henry 2, and McCleary's 40 yard punt was not carried back by Ernst, owing to Gotwals' fine tackle.

West Virginia got the ball because of State's offside propensities and Reynolds gained 5 yards on tackle formation, but the visitors were here penalized 15 yards for holding.
