

The Dances.

The Thanksgiving Hop, which was given by the Senior Class last Friday evening in the Armory, was a great success. The dance was well attended and the large number of visitors and students present enjoyed it thoroughly. The Armory was tastefully decorated, the use of cornstalks adding much to the general effect. Oppenheim's orchestra furnished good music. The committee consisted of the following: O. F. Noss, chairman; P. W. Babcock, A. P. Steigerwalt, J. B. Long, W. S. Stair.

The various fraternities also gave dances in their houses on the evening previous.

Reserves 26—Bellwood 5.

The Reserves under Capt. Ritchey easily defeated the team from Bellwood on Beaver Field last afternoon. The game which the visitors put up was scarcely exciting enough to make make it interesting. In the first half they managed, by a little trick, to score a touchdown. During the remainder of the game, however, they failed to make even a respectable showing against the Scrubs, and at the end of the game the score stood 26-5.

ALUMNI.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of John H. Lytle '05 and Miss Alice Robinson, of Pittsburg. Mr. Lytle is employed by the Westinghouse Company in Pittsburg.
