

State's 30 yard line, where the half ended.

Second half:—Undismayed by W. U. P.'s remarkable defense, State started in faster than ever. Hirshman carried McKeown's kick-off 20 yards, and McCleary's 45 yard punt was returned 15 by Swenson, who played a star game all the way. Burns threw Banbury for a two yard loss, and Banbury's short kick was luckily recovered by Turner. Henry tackled Clancy for no gain. Banbury kicked low and Marshall got the ball on State's 30 yard line. Swenson set W. U. P.'s stand to rocking by a 15 yard dash, but McKeown missed a goal from placement. McCleary kicked out well from the 25 yard line and McKeown's fumble was recovered by Mehl. Throughout the game, W. U. P. had all the luck in recovering fumbles and kicks. Mehl made 2, Banbury lost 4, and Banbury's punt was blocked and secured by Cyphers. Henry gained 2, but it was W. U. P.'s ball on a forward pass, and Banbury got an onside kick for 25 yards advance. McKeown ran 12 yards on a forward pass, and Turner fell on an onside kick on State's 40 yard line. Here State held for downs, and McCleary kicked 40 yards to Mehl, Campbell and Maxwell both tackling hard. Swenson ran 15 yards to State's 15 yard line after McCormick had gained 25 through the recovery of an onside kick. McKeown's place-kick was blocked by Kunkle, but W. U. P. recovered the ball. Desperate plunges by Marshall and Swenson gained about 2 yards and McKeown failed at a field goal. McCleary kicked out from State's 25 yard mark, and then like a thunderbolt the State players pulled themselves together. A remarkable dive by Vorhis secured a punt for State, and smashing through the W. U. P. forwards, State's attack forced another punt, which was blocked, and secured by Kunkle and Cyphers. Swinging forward in an invincible triumphant advance, a heap of struggling blue jerseys finally piled up behind W. U. P.'s goal posts, and the great victory was won!

The annual struggle between the two lower classes will take place on Beaver Field next Saturday, Dec. 8th. This contest has always been, and promises once more to be, an extremely interesting one, accompanied by considerable enthusiasm and a display of true inter-class spirit. The Freshmen, by this time, have acquired at least a fair knowledge of the meaning of "spirit," but they cannot grasp the real significance until the class football game has passed.

Many times victory has been due largely to spirit, as was the case when the 1908 football team won two years ago, and the new men can rest assured that they must be there with the "very same goods" in order to win.

Every indication points to a good, hard, clean contest, just as every lower class football game has always been. Each team will have to play hard to win and it is this "do or die" spirit which every player exhibits that makes the match interesting from start to finish. Intense rivalry exists in all class contests, but it is never shown more particularly than in the football game. Oftentimes the lower class game is the best of the season on Beaver Field, and it is expected that
