The Banner Football Season.

Here is the record of the most successful gridiron season we have ever had at State.

Sept. 22, State 24, Lebanon Valley 0, at State College.

Sept. 29, State 26, Allegheny 0, at State College.

Oct. 6, State 4, Carlisle Indians 0, at Williamsport.

Oct. 13, State 0, Gettysburg 0, at State College.

Oct. State 0, Yale 10, at New Haven.

Nov. 3, State 5, Annapolis 0, at Annapolis.

Nov. 14, State 12, Bellefonte Academy 0, at State College.

Nov. 17, State 6, Dickinson 0, at Williamsport.

Nov. 24, State 10, West Virginia 0, at State College.

Nov. 23, State 6, W. U. P. 0, at Pittsburg.

Total points score, State 93, opponents 10. Games won, 8, lost 1, tied 1.

No eleven in the country, Yale and Princeton alone excepted, has made a more consistent record. A touchdown and field goal by Yale are the only scores of the season against State.

The single blot on the list is the tie game with Gettysburg (a very strong eleven), but following the severe strain of the Indian game, State's players had an off day against the Gettysburgers, and fumbled passes and punts caused the tie. Then again, in the Gettysburg contest nothing but old style football was employed. After this game our coaches ran the Varsity through hard practice on the for-

Chemists' Trip to Europe.

Last Friday, the Berzelius Chemical Society at its regular meeting discussed a contemplated trip to Europe. It is not intended to confine the party entirely to Chemists, but the invitation is open to all State men who wish to take advantage of the cheap rates that will no doubt be obtained. If twenty or more go, the expenses will be greatly reduced, and the project is not at all impossible for the man who can afford to spend three or four hundred dollars during the coming summer. According to the present plans it is claimed that two hundred dollars will be sufficient for a stay of two months in the Old World.

What at first seemed like an air castle has since developed into a more definite probability. Thirty men have given their names as probable members of the party, but nothing can be fully decided upon until after vacation.

Civil Engineering Society.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Civil Engineering Society last Saturday evening, and those present enjoyed the interesting talk of J. C. Gotwals '06. Mr. Gotwals explained in every detail the construction of the Pennsylvania Railroad tunnels at New York City, upon which work he was engaged during the past summer. By the use of some blackboard drawings and a number of plans, his discussion proved to be not only interesting but instructive as well.

The Society decided to have a "feed" before Christmas vacation and it was voted to hold one next Saturday night.

"Tommy" Fennell.

Ever since that afternoon, more than two years ago, when "Tommy" Fennell first stepped upon Beaver Field, our love and respect for this man has grown and expanded, until at the present time, there is no man connected with our college, who wields among the undergrads a stronger influence for all that is manly, courageous, and truly American.

Two weeks ago Mr. Fennell left us to take up his law business at Elmira N. Y., and his genial whole-souled presence is greatly missed. Quite recently the College authorities called upon Mr. Fennell to talk at the Sunday chapel service. This exponent of manly gridiron principles is among the few laymen to whom this honor has been accorded, and the men of State will never forget Fennell's ringing words, calling every one to a cleaner, higher plane of every day life.

A glance at "Tommys" methods in football is given by this terse order that he gave our Varsity men previous to the Annapolis, Dickinson, and W. U. P. games: "I want every man to go in and play State football, the hardest, cleanest, grittiest football you know. Let no man say a word to the officials, except your captain, and if I hear any of you utter a curse word, out you come from the game!"

And to see and to feel the splendid style in which State's sons carry out these orders, and play the very best of quiet, determined, sportsmanlike football is the thing that swells the heart of every State man with pride, as the team dashes upon the field.
