

Great Football Honor

Dunn was a stumbling-block to Yale, and proved a similar difficult proposition for all the teams that met Penn State.

"Some idea of his record and accomplishments may be gathered from the fact that his team was never scored upon save by Yale, although their schedule included games with Yale, Carlisle Indians, and the Navy. Captain Dunn's team defeated the Carlisle Indians and the Navy. He very persistently broke through and blocked kicks. Able to run the hundred inside of eleven seconds, he was down under his own side's kicks with the ends. Beyond all and giving him added worth are his earnestness of purpose and character." Such a write-up as the above needs no comment.

To clearly demonstrate the unique honor which lies in this official selection of Dunn for the All-America team, it may be said here that during the period from 1889 to 1906 on the eighteen All-America elevens which have annually been selected by Mr. Camp, there have been, besides Penn State, only seven other colleges throughout the country (Chicago, Michigan, Carlisle Indians, West Point, Dartmouth, Amherst and Brown) thus honored, in addition to selections from the Eastern giants, Yale, Princeton, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Cornell, and Columbia, which have very naturally assumed the lead in college sport during the past 20 years and more.

This is, then, a signal triumph for the gridiron prestige of our college; but not a whit more than State deserves, by reason of the clean, steady, high-class character of the football played by our Varsity elevens during the past ten years. Mr. Camp has clearly displayed his fair-mindedness and integrity of purpose by thus selecting a player on one of the so-called "minor" college teams, and such action on the part of this eminent sportsman is conducive to the welfare of inter-collegiate sport all over our country. For many years State's sturdy sons have striven for the highly prized gridiron honor, and we again congratulate "Mother" Dunn and his grand eleven!

THOMAS FENNEL,
State's Popular Football Coach.

Here are the selections officially made by Walter Camp.
