

Another All-Pennsylvania Team

The selection of an All-Pennsylvania eleven recently (December 22nd) made by Mr. E. E. Mooar, Editor of College Sports on the Pittsburg Dispatch, reflects very clearly the general sentiment of unprejudiced Pittsburgers as regards strength of State's team during the past season. The fact being recognized that Penn State's eleven is the virtual champion team of the Keystone State—Lafayette and Swarthmore being the only aspirants to this honor—Mr. Mooar therefore gives to no less than four State players positions on his first eleven, just as Mr. Walter Camp always gives Yale three or four men on the All-America team when Yale wins the gridiron championship, which, indeed, seems to be a fair method of selection.

As the gentleman who picked these elevens saw State's team play against both the Indians and W. U. P. he knows whereof he speaks.

The Dispatch's All-Pennsy selections are as follows:

First eleven—centre, Dunn, Penn State; guard, Kunkle, Penn State; guard, Ziegler, Penn; tackle, Dowd, Lafayette; tackle, Marshall, W. U. P.; end, Burns, Penn State; end, Perry, W. U. P.; quarter, Price, W. & J.; half, McCleary, Penn State; half, Mt. Pleasant, Indians; full, Hollenback, Penn.

Second eleven—end, Coble, Swarthmore; guard, Draper, Penn; guard, Dillon, Indians; tackle, Gottwald, Penn State; tackle, Waseuka, Indians; end, Chalmers, Lafayette; end, Exendine, Indians; quarter, Swenson, W. U. P.; half, Barrett, Swarthmore; half, Sieber, Gettysburg; full, Hirshman, Penn State.

The record achieved by each team during the season is the only just criterion for judging whether or not any players from this team should get places on such an eleven as the All-Pennsylvania, although when individual players show exceptional ability, as Price of W. & J., Sieber of Gettysburg, Perry of W. U. P., or Hollenback and Zeigler of Penn, it is only natural that they should receive most favorable notice.
