

COLLEGE NOTES.

The sacred concert on the last Sunday of the fall term added an appropriate touch to the holiday season and was appreciated by a large portion of the student body. Selections by the Glee club Orchestra, and College choir, together with duets by Misses Atherton and Grieb and a cornet solo by Mr. Allport formed an enjoyable program.

The Panama Canal.

A thoroughly interested audience listened to the illustrated lecture on the Isthmian Canal, given by Dr. E. B. McDowell in the Auditorium on Friday evening, Dec. 14th. The feature of the entertainment was a large number of views and moving pictures which had been secured with his own camera by the lecturer along the canal site. These showed the vast amount of excavating which must be done in the construction of the waterway. Dr. McDowell believes in the ultimate success of the undertaking, but characterizes it as one of the greatest engineering feats ever undertaken, and one which needs and deserves the hearty support of the entire American people to make it one of the crowning feats of American ingenuity and perseverance.
