

Bellefonte Alumni Association

The Bellefonte Alumni Association and friends, ex-students of State, to the number of twenty or more, sat down to an oyster supper and smoker at Ceader's in Bellefonte, Saturday evening, Dec. 29th.

The president of the association, Col. E. R. Chambers, presided, and addresses were made by Judge Orvis, Gen. Beaver, Col. Taylor and Messrs. Potter, Hunter, Erb and others. During the course of the evening, efforts looking toward substantial help to the Library were inaugurated and other matters of interest to State men were discussed. There are at present about twenty members of the association while students from the town and vicinity number about as many more.

Kicklets.

Is there any need to ring the bell from two to three minutes every Sunday evening and thus disturb any meeting that may be in session?

The disagreeable crush in the foyer of the Auditorium would be avoided if all the doors were opened at the close of Y. M. C. A. entertainments and other similar affairs.
