Varsity Squad Chosen.

From a turnout of over one hundred baseball candidates the varsity squad has now been reduced to forty players. This weeding out has been necessitated by reason of the lack of sufficient working space on the Armory floor as well as the lack of time for practice work previous to the first game of the season.

dates, and will later on be aided in his work by "Rube" Bressler, Williamsport's great pitcher and hitter. Captain Mason is looking after the infield candidates, while "Jimmy" Sebring, Williamsport's successful captain-manager, and a former league star, will be here within ten days to instruct the outfielders, and lend a hand in batting practice.

The schedule this year begins on March 27th, less than two months away.

The regular periods for practice for the varsity squad are Friday and Saturday afternoons, 1:30 to 4 o'clock, and all other students are requested to keep off the Armory floor during these hours. H. C. McIlveen '07 has charge of all battery candi-

"Pop" Golden has general supervision over the squad, and with everybody working with one end in view prospects are good for a winning nine, notwithstanding the fact that only three varsity players remain from the 1906 team.

Here is the varsity squad of forty players chosen:—Cree, Pearce, Mitinger, and Conklin, of last year's son, R. Vorhis, Lynch, Bray, Crutchley, Hollister, Hollinger, Glenn and Groninger.
