

Baseball Reserves' Good Trip.

C. G. Reiter, '09, assistant baseball manager, is busy arranging a three day trip to Pittsburg during the month of May. Games may be included with Carnegie Tech, Pittsburg High School, Kiski, Shadyside Academy, or Allegheny High School, and this trip will prove the best ever arranged for State's second team, which will have to be strong this season in order to make a winning record.

Return games will also be played on Beaver Field with such opponents as Carnegie Tech, Kiski and Bellefonte Academy. There is an abundance of baseball material here this year, and the strongest reserve team on record will undoubtedly be developed. The varsity will not take a western trip this spring, so it is up to the reserves to uphold State's baseball prestige in that section. As has been the usual custom the captain of the reserve team will be chosen by the varsity captain sometime before the Easter vacation.

Juniors Honor Dr. Atherton.

In a class meeting on Saturday evening the juniors took up the question of the dedication of the 1908 LaVic. After a quite one-sided deliberation on the subject it was decided to dedicate the LaVic to Dr. Geo. W. Atherton, the late president of the college. This unanimous decision is a marvelous demonstration of the spirit of the class in coming to the realization of the real worth of our time-tested president, who has given his very life to make State College what it is today.

Jones:—"They turn out a great many chemists at State."

Smith:—"Yes, but most of them are freshmen."

Buttermilk:—"What course are you taking?"

Short horn:—"The short course in 'crematory.'"

The Debating Club.

At the regular meeting of the debating club held last Saturday night in the club room in the Main building, H. M. Braucher and W. H. Wentzel presented their resignations from the intercollegiate debating team. Both men have so much work on their hands that they cannot devote sufficient time to preparation for the coming debate with Dickinson. The resignations were accepted and new trials will be held in the near future to fill the vacancies on the team.

The entire session was given up to business, necessitating the postponement of the regularly scheduled debate until the ensuing meeting.
