

State Collegian.

Vol. III, No 19.

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FEBRUARY 21, 1907.

Price Five Cents.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

In order to stimulate the writing of college songs and yells the cooperative association makes the following offer:

At the end of this year, that is, Christmas, 1907, a prize of fifty dollars ($50) will be given to the student who composes the best college song or yell, the prize being given under the following conditions. All songs and yells must be submitted to the cooperative association. At the end of the year the captains and managers of all the athletic teams will select from those submitted the ten which they believe to be the best. These ten will be voted on by the athletic association and the one receiving the highest vote will be awarded the prize of fifty dollars.

As in the past the cooperative association will publish and distribute free copies of the college songs and yells, and it reserves the right to use any or all which may be submitted in this contest. This offer is open to all, and is subject only to the conditions noted above.

Reserves Defeated.

In a rather rough contest last Saturday afternoon State's reserve team met defeat at the hands of Dickinson Seminary, at Williamsport by the score of 46 to 21.

Thespians.

The Thespian Dramatic society has announced that the play selected for presentation this year is "The Brixton Burglary." This play is a three act comedy especially adapted to production by college men. The original intention of the society was to give a burlesque on one of Shakespeare's most famous plays, but it was found impossible to carry out this idea. Mrs. Hurley, who has instructed the men in their parts for a number of years past, has consented to act in the same capacity this year.

The first performance will be given in the Auditorium shortly before the Easter vacation. A short time later, a trip will be taken and performances given at Bellefonte, Johnstown, and Clearfield. The officers of the society, with the exception of Prof. Higley, treasurer, are all from the senior class, and are as follows: Newton, president; Partridge, secretary; Smith, manager; Laird, assistant manager.

Easter Hop.

The senior class at a recent meeting voted to hold the annual Easter dance on Friday evening, April 12th. The committee appointed to arrange for the affair is: F. L. Lindemuth, chairman; F. O. Leitzell, E. C. Dunkle, L. C. Shank, and B. A. Smith.

Question Meeting Postponed.

The Bible study question meeting which was scheduled for last Tuesday evening will be held next Tuesday, Feb. 26 in room 529 at 6:30 p. m. Dr. Gill will answer all questions that may be asked.

M. E. Society.

The last meeting of the Mechanical Engineering Society was made notable by the announcement by Prof. Reber of the vast plans that have been mapped out for the re-organization and extension of the entire School of Engineering.

The subject of the evening was "Mechanical Draft, Forced and Induced." E. A. McGill spoke of the need for assisting chimney draft by blowers or suction fans in modern, high-power boiler installations, and taking up the subdivision of forced draft, he explained the essential features of the system. C. E. McCoy followed with a discussion of the induced draft system, and explained its advantages as compared with forced draft. Both speakers used the lantern freely to illustrate the apparatus employed in each system and various methods of installation.

Commencement Exhibit.

The Camera club is planning to have, during commencement week, an exhibition of photographic work done by members. This new feature should prove of general interest to visitors as well as to members of the college community.

"Modern Developing Agents" was the subject of D. C. Cochrane's talk before the club at the last meeting. Beginners will be interested in the subject of the next meeting, "The Taking of a Picture."

To represent the club in the 1908 La Vie, a novel plate is being prepared.

P. M. Snoeberger, '03, is now district manager for the B. F. Sturtevant Company, with headquarters in Scranton.
