

shape for the southern trip. Coaches McIlveen and Bressler have been doing very effective work with the pitching candidates, the majority of whom seem to be in fair shape. A great responsibility rests upon State's twirlers this season, as for three years past our uniformly victorious baseball record has been largely due to the wonderful work of McIlveen and Haverstick, neither of whom will play with the team this year. J. E. Staud '07 has been appointed to captain the reserves for the coming season.

Senior Miners' Feed.

Dr. M. E. Wadsworth tendered to the '07 miners the annual senior banquet last Thursday evening at the Beta Theta Pi house; and a more delightful evening has never been enjoyed anywhere—so say all the '07 miners. The full muster of the section numbering twenty-three, was present, with the single exception of "Mike" Dodge, who is home on "sick leave;" while other invited guests made the entire gathering number thirty-two.
