The advance in the Mission Study

After Commencement, What?

Time for the young college man to decide what line of work to take up. Employers are already taking their pick of 1907 graduates. You can't afford to delay, if you intend to begin work in the early summer or fall. "The College Man's Opportunity" tells what we have done and are doing for college men—what we can do for you if you intend to enter business, teaching or technical work. Write for it to-day. department has been remarkable. More than five times as many men are studying in the classes as in last year's classes. The classes have been as follows: "The Healing of the Nations" (on medical missions), "Social Evils of the Non-Christian World," Modern Apostles of Missionary Byways" (a biographical course), "Protestant Missions in South America," "The Call of the Homeland" (on problems in our own country). The leaders have been students. The classes have been run in two terms, the first from Nov. to Feb., the second from Feb. to May. This plan gives the men a chance to take up the work of two of the courses. The statistics are:

Number of classes	5
Total enrollment	147
Number of different men enrolled in two terms	109

The committee expects to raise about $100.00 before the close of the college year, this sum going toward the support of Mr. Harvey, Tien Tsin, China.

There are now eight student volunteers in college, of which number four have made this decision since our last report.

BIBLE STUDY

The group plan has been used for the third consecutive year and small groups arranged according to natural grouping and studying under student leaders, who in turn are coached by experienced men. The leaders have been coached this year by Professors Runkle, Pattee, Foster and Rev. Mr. Whitenack, of the Presbyterian church. The courses have been: Seniors, "Old Testament Characters," prepared and taught by Prof. Willard; Juniors, "The Teachings of Jesus and the Apostles," by Dr. Bosworth; Sophomores, "The Life of Paul," by Prof. Leacock; Freshmen, "The Life of Jesus" by Murray; Fraternities, "Social Significance of Jesus' Teachings," by Dr. Jenks.
