

Bellefonte Academy is a Surprise

The game originally scheduled here with Bellefonte Academy for Saturday April 13th, was transferred to Thursday the 18th, on account of cold weather. The usual easy victory over the Academy boys was looked for, but their plucky pitcher, Fullerton, with his deceptive "spit-ball," proved such a stumbling block for State's hitters that the game was not won until the eighth inning. At this juncture, with the score 2 to 2 and two men out. Cree tripled to middle, Mason's high fly was juggled and dropped by Loudon. Thomas doubled to right, and Coulson's single did the rest. Some excellent fielding was done by Moore, Mason, Hirshman, Crutchley and Oberlin. The Academy team is the best that they have had in many years.
