No Game at Williamsport.

The game scheduled at Williamsport for last Saturday, April 20th, with the strong Tri-State club, was called off on account of the six inches of snow which fell on Friday, rendering it impossible to have the grounds in shape for a game. A great crowd was looked for at this contest, as it would have been the first Saturday game for the loyal Williamsport fans, and Penn State's teams are always popular in the Lumber City. This game cannot be played later in the season as both managers now have their schedules filled.
