The Indian Game.

Following their recent victories over Pennsylvania and Villanova, and remembering their football defeat last season, the Indians at Carlisle were determined at all hazards to defeat Pennsylvania State. Garlow, the Indians' star pitcher, was delegated by Coach Warner to do the twirling and with a thousand Indians of both sexes cheering him on, and the famous Carlisle Indian band blaring forth encouragement, he pitched excellent ball. For the White and Blue the reliable Mitinger entered the box and had "the Indian sign" on Carlisle from start to finish, allowing but three singles in seven innings, while no Indian got past second base. As usual, State opened hostilities by scoring. Cree drove one through Pappau which landed him safe on first base. Mason's sacrifice was tumbled, and Cree gained third base. The double steal was now successfully executed, Mason keeping the Indians busy between first and second, while Cree dashed for the plate. In the sixth inning successive hits by Vorhis, Crutchley, Bray, and Ferguson yielded 3 runs. Rain stopped the game in the seventh inning. Score 6 to 0.

Another Defeat for Dickinson.

After returning last Friday from their Northern trip our varsity nine again met Dickinson, and defeated our rivals in one of the most exciting games ever witnessed on Beaver Field. Early in the game our players did not get together with their usual speed and aggressiveness, being tired out after their long journey. Later in the game, however, the splendid sneering of State's 900 undergraduates inspired the varsity to turn a certain defeat into a brilliant ten inning victory. Langstaff, Dickinson's tall right-hander, pitched an excellent game, no hits registered against him until the seventh inning, while Lynch did

If you want to make money this summer

We have a proposition by which a good man can, in three months, make more than enough to defray his college expenses for the next year.

There is no outfit to buy and no catechism which you have to learn. All you need is your own gray matter and a little help from us from time to time.

If you will write us, we will gladly explain how we propose to make your next college year free from financial worry.
