The Lehigh Game.

The final game of the trip was with Lehigh, and these opponents played their best game of the season. Hesse's pitching together with phenomenal fielding kept State from scoring until in the seventh inning. With the score 2 to 0, the game looked a sure victory for Lehigh, but Penn State's sons once more displayed their staying qualities. Larry Vorhis banged out a triple past Barker in the seventh and scored on Coulson's fly to middle. In the ninth, Mason was up first and was struck by one of Hesse's in shoots. Coulson drew a base on balls, and big Hirshman with two out settled the question with a drive for two bases between the left and middle fielders.

Kiski 4; Bellefonte Academy 3.

Kiskiminetas defeated Bellefonte academy on Beaver field on Monday afternoon in one of the best "prep" school games of the season. Intense rivalry existed in the game from the fact that the two pitchers were brothers, both of whom did excellent work. Aside from this the features of the game were the fielding of Whetstone and the batting of Rollins for the academy. Fullerton and Campbell played the star game for Kiski.

The Senior Reception.

On Wednesday evening of last week the Cotillion club entertained the Senior class informally at cards and dancing in McAllister Hall. Six men from the College orchestra furnished music for the dancing, while in one corner of the hall tables were arranged for the game of "500." Both the floor and the tables were full at all times, and the eighty or more seniors who attended had an enjoyable time.

The lady prize winners at "500" were: first, Miss Park, second, Mrs. Wadsworth. Of the gentlemen, the first was Mr. Gregg, and the second, Mr. Goodling.

Announcement was made of the Cotillion club officers for the following year: president, Dr. Myers; secretary, Prof. G. A. Whittemore; treasurer, Mr. Braman.

The class of 1907 of Bucknell University has decided to install a towel clock as a memorial. It will be placed in a tower erected for the purpose on one of the buildings.

Kiski vs. Reserves.

After defeating Bellefonte academy Kiskiminetas met our Reserves on Beaver field Tuesday afternoon. The final score stood Kiski 2 Reserves 4.
