State 9—F. and M. O.
 The feature of Friday's game on Beaver field was the wonderful pitching of big "Bull" McCleary, who struck out twenty F. and M. batters, and did not allow anything like a hit until the ninth inning. Only one of the visitors reached second base during the game, while State's timely batting off both Lentz and Horn yielded nine runs. McCleary's strong hitting was also a feature, likewise the clean, fast fielding of both teams. It was a fine game all through, and made our varsity's eighteenth victory this season.

Lost.

Several months ago a Bible and a Bible study book were taken from the office of McAllister Hall. The former was highly prized as a gift, and the owner, a Senior, is anxious to recover the books before leaving college. A liberal reward will be paid if the books are returned either to Room 7, Track House or to McAllister Hall-office.

1910 Nominations.

The following nominations for the offices of next year's Sophomore class were made at a meeting held last Friday evening: President, Ogilvie, Buka, Sloan; vice president, Vorhis, Hay, Lams, Whit-

ALUMNI.

T. F. Foltz, '06, spent the latter part of last week at the college. He has been employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad at Altoona but has lately been transferred to the West Jersey Electric, which is the electric line of the Pennsylvania between Philadelphia and Atlantic City. He will have his headquarters in Atlantic City.

HAPPENINGS.

A. W. Staub, of the Student Volunteer Movement, addressed the Christian association meeting Sunday evening. Within the next year Mr. Staub will go to China where he will be supported by Oberlin College.

Miss Redifer entertained the '07 "Preps" last week. There are about twenty of the original number still in college.
