

Battalion Inspection.

The military drill season will close with the annual government inspection on Friday. The inspecting officer will be Captain J. A. Penn of the General Staff, a classmate of Captain Hay at West Point. The inspection this year will be more complete and thorough than ever before, but as the battalion is in better condition than in previous years, an excellent showing should be made. The inspector will remain for a few days as the guest of Captain Hay.

The commencement parade will be reviewed by Col. Frank G. Sweeney, Inspector General of the National Guard of Pennsylvania.

G. L. Strayer, '10, left college last week. He will attend the Jamestown exposition.

The cadet band will take part in the memorial exercises at Boalsburg tomorrow.
