

BASEBALL SQUAD, 1907

From a scholastic point of view the work of the year has been kept at a high standard, and the men who graduate, if they have studied at all, are well prepared for the larger school of experience.

But, after all, why should we be serious at a time like this? Is it not merely a transition period, like stepping from preparatory school into college? Let us then away with melancholy thoughts and sad good-byes! It is the Commencement season, a time of joy and gladness, of pretty girls and indulgent chaperones, of music, dancing, entertainments. Woolen shirts and jerseys have had their day and we wear our best in honor of the visitors. To all we extend greetings and for all we wish a merry time.

We wish to acknowledge our thanks to the managers of the 1908 La Vie for most of the cuts which appear in this issue.

The Collegian has passed through another successful year under the guidance of A. K. Little and F. K. Brewster. Mr. Little has been connected with the paper during two years, while Mr. Brewster has worked for the success of the publication during the three years of its existence. It is with regret also that we record the loss to the paper of H. D. Mason, who has had charge of the athletic news. He has worked most faithfully in the interests of the paper, and to him is due no small part of the credit for making the paper what it is. To the men of the class of 1907 who have labored for the success of the paper we wish to acknowledge our appreciation of their work. It is our hope that as alumni the class of 1907 will not fail to keep in touch with their alma mater and with its publications.

The Philochorean Dance.

From present indications the annual Philochorean dance will this year be a great success. Twice the attendance of last year is already assured, and great preparations are being made. W. T. Dunn will have charge of the refreshments and the Sunbury orchestra will furnish the music. The dance will be held in McAllister immediately after the Junior Oratorical contest.
