

TO THE CLASS OF 1907:

You are an alumnus of "State," and you are interested in everything connected with State. We therefore urge you to subscribe for the State Collegian, as there is no better method of keeping posted on all the news concerning your Alma Mater.

During the coming year we will print all the news of the various athletic teams, what they are doing and the shape they are in; we will print all news of proposed buildings, such as the new Engineering building which Schwab intends to give us; and we will give accounts of what our alumni are doing in the world, as far as we can find out anything. This last the alumni department, with the aid of the secretary of the alumni association is trying to bring into better shape than it has been before. Thus we hope to be able to tell you what your own classmates, especially, are doing. So when you send in your subscription just let us know what you are doing, what company you are with and in fact anything which may be of interest to your classmates.

You all know what the Collegian is and that it has a hard struggle for existence, and therefore needs your support. The first two issues will be sent to you free, so that in case your subscription does not reach us till late you will receive the first numbers. After that unless we hear from you we must discontinue your name from our list. We sincerely hope that you will send in an early subscription to

The Business Manager, State Collegian,
State College, Pa.

Price, $1.50 or $1.25 if paid before Oct. 31, 1907.