

Football of the Week.

Most of the big teams had what were to be practice games last week but which proved as a general thing to be hard fought contests.

The cause of the low scores is sometimes attributed to the new rules and open playing but a great factor which cannot be forgotten is that a square deal is forthcoming under the rules committee. A minor college is now as much to the officials as one of the "Big Four." Penn was favored with luck in securing two touchdowns against Brown. The Providence boys seemed shy and their slowness in getting off plays was very evident. Penn plays a very formidable game and needs to be watched.

With Hauser and Mt. Pleasant out of the game Carlisle succeeded in defeating Bucknell 15 to 0

By a good defense the Army succeeded in holding Yale to a 0-0 game while the Navy by equally good work allowed Harvard but a single touchdown.

W. and J.'s team, accompanied by over 300 students, hoped to surprise Princeton but received a severe defeat by the one-sided score of 40 to 0.

Ursinus defeated Dickinson for the first time in many years by 16 to 0. The Carlisle boys proved weak in many respects but expect to give State a hard game on Nov. 2.

The Mechanical Feed

This time it was the Mechanicals, the time being Thursday evening of last week, the place, Nittany Inn, and the results, the disappearance of considerable quantities of edibles. Forty-seven were present, including eighteen seniors, in whose honor the banquet was given, twenty-three juniors, and the members of the instructing force of the department.

The toasts were as follows:

Toastmaster, F. F. Simon; M. E. Society, D. F. Evans; Mech.
