STATE COLLEGE NOTES

Professors Leete and Foss of Carnegie Tech. spent several days in town during the past week.

Through the kindness of J. S. Cochran '03, the Lancaster Daily Examiner is now to be found in the library.

Mr. Nikolas Smidtz of the Bureau of Plant Industry, Washington, D. C., was a recent visitor.

Prof. Willard of Kansas Agriculture college was here to inspect the college a few days ago.

Mr. Larsen, a graduate of Iowa State college, began his duties as instructor in dairy husbandry on Nov. 1.

Twenty thousand copies of a bulletin on Winter courses in Agriculture are being distributed this month.

A station bulletin by Prof. Mairs on Methods of Cattle Feeding has just been published.

It has been suggested that the cannons be placed on the campus on Pennsylvania Day and that a salute be fired to mark the opening of the day's ceremonies.

Harry LeR. Frederick, '05, spent a few days in town last week, and also took in the Dickinson game. He is connected with the General Electric Co. at Schenectady.

The twenty-five students from Montgomery county organized several days ago, with E. M. Thomas, '08, as president and J. H. Graber, '10, secretary.

The Hon. Fred Ikeler, of Bloomsburg, will speak at the regular services next Sunday morning. Those who heard him last year will be glad to enjoy the same privilege on Sunday.
