

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

Amherst college has just received more than 1000 volumes of Chinese literature, the gift of Sir Chentung Iiang Cheng, former Chinese Minister to the United States. The former Minister is especially desirous that his countrymen who are studying here shall not forget their own language and literature. Sir Cheng is a graduate of Phillips Andover.

The entire student body at Oregon Agricultural College have passed resolutions condemning hazing in all forms. The college has over nine hundred students. The cause of this action was the free use of a knife by a freshman upon three sophomores who attempted to give him a cold bath in a fountain.

The firm of Westbrook & Voss, civil engineers and surveyors, of Stroudsburg, Pa., are at work on a $28000 combined highway and trolley bridge in that town. Philip L. Voss, '07, is the junior member of this firm.

All of the baseball team of last season at Dartmouth have been forbidden to play football this fall because of a charge of professionalism brought against them for summer playing.

New chapters of Phi Beta Kappa have been established in the following institutions.—Franklin & Marshall, Virginia, Iowa College, Ohio Wesleyan, and Michigan.

The Yale academic seniors have discarded the honor system as tried in the classroom and at examinations, and have voted to return to the old faculty monitor system.

Beginning on Monday evening a fifteen-minute prayer service will be held each evening this week, ending with Friday. The services will be in charge of student leaders, and will begin at 6.45 o'clock, sharp, and will close at 7.00.

A new book, "Notes on Mechanical and Practical Drawing," has just come from the press, the author being Professor Victor T. Wilson, who has charge of engineering drawing in the college. The book, a 175 page volume bound in dark cloth, is published by the Illinois Printing Company, of Danville, Ill. It will be used in our own college and in the University of Illinois, where Professor Wilson formerly taught.
