The coatless man puts a careless arm
 'Round the waist of a hatless girl,
 While over the dustless, mudless roads

 Like a headless bullet from ham-merless gun,

By smokeless powder driven.

 By endless union given,

The only luncheon his coinless purse
 Affords to them the means

Is a tasteless meal of boneless cod,
 With a dish of stringless beans.

He smokes his old tobaccoless pipe,
 And laughs a mirthless laugh,

When papa tries to coax her back
 By wireless telegraph.— Ex.
