I Love", College Glee Club; address, "The Education of the Farmer", Whitman H. Jordan, Director of the New York State Agricultural Experiment Station; address, Senator Penrose; address, Senator Grimm; music, recessional, College Orchestra.

The principal event of the afternoon was the regimental review in which the cadets won high commendation from the Governor and his staff. Following the military ceremonies the new buildings were thrown open for inspection and many visitors were shown the splendid equipment. In the assembly hall a reception was tendered to the invited guests.

In the evening a public meeting of the Agricultural Society was held in the new building. After an address of welcome by W. G. Ross, Mr. Barlow, an alumnus of the college, spoke of his early experiences here. Under the heading of "Agriculture at State College," J. A. Runk gave a short summary of the various courses. "Agriculture as a Business" was a subject of an address by Charles Coates. Dr. Jordan, Dr. Hunt, and Mr. Harmon were called upon for brief remarks. The program was enlivened by selections by the college orchestra.
