

relations between the colleges represented. It is believed that Haverford, F. & M., and W. U. P. will also enter teams. The new organization starts under very favorable conditions and should constitute an important factor in the athletic world.

Shungopavi's Magic.

Such a combination of wit, humor, musical talent, and bewildering magic has seldom been presented in one evening as Shungopavi and his company furnished to a delighted audience in the Auditorium last Saturday evening. Leaving aside his wonderful skill as a magician this Indian medicine man is a very pleasing entertainer. His recital of the legends and traditions of his people on the sunbaked prairies of Arizona was enough to hold the close attention of each auditor. Misses Munch and Senton added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening by a wide variety of vocal and instrumental selections.

Reception to Short Course Students.

One of the most successful and "rousing" events of the season was the reception to the short course students by the Agricultural Society last Friday evening. The Assembly hall in the new building was turned over to square dances, Virginia reels, stag and feasting.

It is said that a student earlier in the evening having heard of the coming "stag" inquired whether or not the Elks were holding a convention. On the contrary there were neither Elks nor "dears" present but merely lusty devotees of the soil who enjoyed themselves beyond mention.

J. I. Burrell, '06, has resigned his position with Armor and Company, St. Louis, to accept a more lucrative one with the Dow Chemical company, Midland, Mich.

Harry W. Montz, '07, is an inspector of construction work with headquarters at Uniontown, Pa.
