

The Swarthmore Game.

The Swarthmore five proved to be the hardest proposition Penn State has faced on the Armory floor this season. Following a successful eastern trip, which was closed by a victory over Swarthmore on their floor, the team won new laurels from the Quaker aggregation. This was the seventh victory out of the eight games played thus far.

The entire game was hotly contested and the score stood 14 14 at the end of the first half. Not less than six times during this half the score was tied. At every stage of the game, Penn State exhibited fine form and the wonderful passing of our five was an astonishment to Swarthmore. At the beginning of the second half, State played with whirlwind speed and succeeded in obtaining a lead which Swarthmore failed to overcome.

Abele, a former member of State's 1907 varsity football squad, played an excellent game at forward for Swarthmore. Dill, one of the varsity guards, made two phenomenal long shots.

Short Course Students Leave.

Yesterday the short course for students in Agriculture closed, and most of the men have left for their homes. They speak very highly of the opportunities for young men who avail themselves of the benefits offered here. They also feel as though they were well treated and have formed an attachment for this institution. At their banquet held at the Nittany Inn last week, they voiced their thanks and appreciation and pledged themselves to help make the short course even more successful in the future. About 91 men completed the various courses.
