The Pennsylvania State College

The several courses and branches of instruction are grouped in the following schools:

School of Language and Literature:

General Science course, Classical course, A course in Modern Language and Literature. Latin Scientific course, A course in Home Economics.

School of History, Political

Science, and Philosophy:

The several subjects included in this School are incorporated more or less extensively into all the four years' courses. A separate course in Philosophy is offered, and other courses may be had. (See catalog.)

School of Agriculture: 3.

- Four year courses in Agriculture in six distinct lines, including Forestry.
- Five Short courses of twelve weeks each.
- Courses of Instruction for Farmers (one week)
- Special Work in Agriculture (one or two years),
- Correspondence courses (Home Reading and Study). 31 subjects.

For information

4. School of Natural Science:

Course in Biology, Course in Chemistry, Course in Industrial Chemistry,

5. School of Mathematics and Physics:

> Course in Mathematics, Course in Physics.

School of Engineering: 6.

Course in Civil Engineering, Course in Electrical Engineering, Course in Electro-Chemical Engineering, Course in Mechanical Engineering, Course in Sanitary Engineering, Elementary course in Mechanics (two years).

7. School of Mines and Metallurgy:

Course in Mines and Mining (four years), Short course in Mining (two years), Special Students in Mining (no time limit).

Address, The Registrar, State College, Pa.