

COLLEGE NOTES.

Dr. Sparks spent Monday at the college on his way west from the series of alumni meetings.

Wanted—A combination snow shoe and life preserver to render the navigation of the campus walks less dangerous.

It is rumored that the sand recently deposited near the Ladies Cottage is intended for distribution to timid callers.

The senior class has decided to hold their banquet in Bellefonte some time this month. The committee consists of C. S. Snively, F. A. Hull, J. E. Boyle, J. E. Perry, and D. R. Simpson.

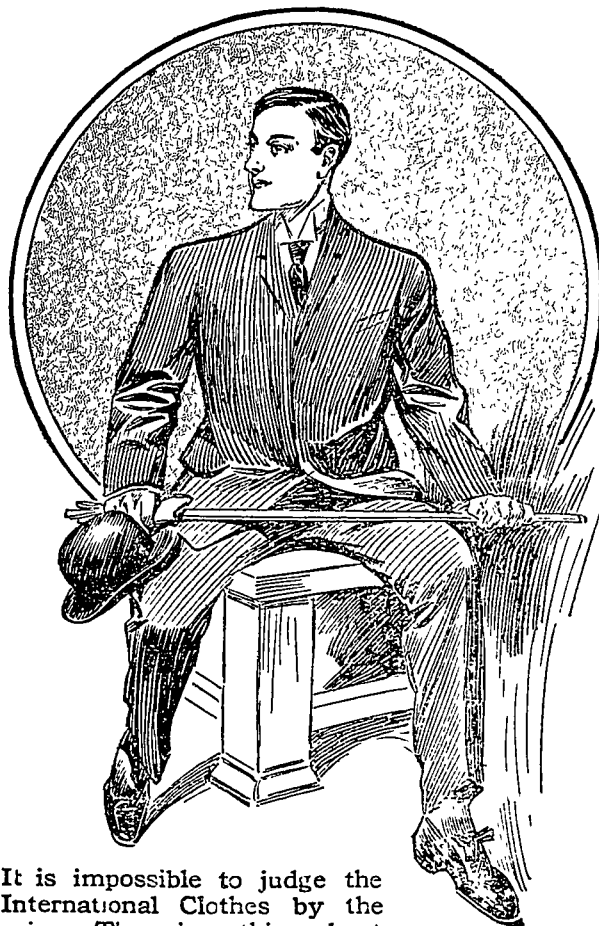

On Sunday evening at 6.15 in the Old Chapel, there will be a mass meeting in place of the usual Y. M. C. A. meeting. The subject thereof will be "Daddy" Groff, '07.

Dr. Stecker, who is a life member of the American Mathematical Society, attended the regular meeting of that society at Columbia University, New York City, on Feb. 29th.

"Tom" Fennell, who has for several years coached our football teams, was re-elected for a three year term on the advisory football committee at Cornell. This committee guides the destinies of the coaching system

Chicago Alumni to Dine.

An alumni dinner will be given at the University Club in Chicago on the evening of March 14th at which it is hoped that all alumni and former students living in or near Chicago will be present. Further information will be furnished by Mr. W. M. Camp, Manhattan Building, Chicago.

It is impossible to judge the International Clothes by the price. There is nothing about them that is similar to others—so comparison is out of place. They stand alone. Though popular priced they are far in advance of those that cost you double. The difference lies in the fact that the International Tailoring Co., of New York and Chicago have different methods and are able to render service of the highest order at a price that none can imitate.
