

THE TOASTMASTER.

Production by the Thespians the Best in Recent Years.

The college dramatic club made a decided hit last Friday evening in the eleventh anniversary production, a three act comedy entitled "The Toastmaster." It is generally conceded that this season's show in many respects far surpasses the play given last year. A large and enthusiastic audience greatly encouraged the amateur actors.

To college people, the play was particularly pleasing, for it vividly presented the interesting complications which resulted from a banquet of underclassmen. Amusing situations and comical experiences were in order almost ever minute and the entire production was found to be very entertaining.

Judging from the hearty applause at the end of each act and from the warm expressions of approval heard on all sides, the efforts of the various members of the cast were crowned with success. The work displayed by the old men was excellent, while that of the new men, several of whom had principal parts, was of the same high standard. Each man portrayed his part admirably and, on the whole, the play was very cleverly executed.

The college quartette and orchestra added variety to the program by contributing a number of selections in their usual excellent manner.

At Bellefonte, the Thespians were greeted by a good sized audience. Good staging facilities produced a better effect and the people were highly pleased with the entire performance. At Tyrone and Clearfield, they met with the usual success. The houses were well filled with appreciative audiences at both towns.

The senior class will meet tonight at 6.30 in room 20 Eng. Bldg.
