

Among Sister Colleges.

The sophomores won the annual snow rush at Syracuse University a few days ago.

A list of freshmen who have been violating the cap rule at Brown was recently published.

During the Easter vacation Penn's walking club will journey on foot to New York, returning by rail.

The girls at the University of Minnesota are demanding an "M" for their basketball championship.

The first year women at Chicago have decided to wear green sleevebands with class numerals on them in place of green caps.

A petition has lately been circulated among the students of the University of Michigan demanding that the town council pass a total prohibition ordinance.

The charges of professionalism made against the Carlisle football squad have resulted in a four year rule and a minimum requirement as to the amount of school work taken by athletes.

Attention, Tennis Players.

There will be a meeting of all men interested in tennis in Room 20 Engineering Building at 6.30 o'clock Saturday evening. All who are interested in the game are urged to come out to this meeting, as important matters will be considered.

On February 29, 1908, Edward B. Espenshade, '98, was married to Miss Elizabeth Jones, of Chicago, Illinois. For the past three years Mr. Espenshade has been engaged in railway construction work in Montana for the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway.

Pooh! Pooh!!! Harvard; Pooh! Pooh! Yale
We got our lessons through the mail,
We're no dummies; we're no fools,
Rah! Rah! Rah! Correspondence Schools.

Kindly mention the State Collegian when calling upon our advertisers.

The most glorious stock of good things we ever offered our trade, consisting of fine clothing, hats, shirts and neckwear and all articles included in a regular line of men's, youth's and boys' furnishing goods now ready in profusion

Montgomery & Company

Gladstone Taylor, college representative

A PENNY
for your thoughts

The
Paul E. Wirt
Fountain Pen

"What a perfect pen the WIRT is."
That's the constant thought of every user. Twenty years of test and triumph
ALWAYS READY
ALWAYS WRITES

Ask your dealer. 100 styles. Choose yours.
Send for illustrated catalogue.
Box G-5 Bloomsburg, Pa.