

COLLEGE NOTES.

On Sunday at 6.15 in the Old Chapel, the Christian Association will hold a memorial meeting for Hugh McAllister Beaver, '95, March 29th being the thirty-fifth anniversary of his birth. There will be two or three brief accounts of the different periods of his life, and an estimate of the man by one of the professors who taught him at this college. There will be special music. The meeting will be open to all.

In the effort to increase the interest in the scientific growing of corn and alfalfa, the Pennsylvania railroad will run a "Farmers' Corn and Alfalfa" special through a part of Ohio. At the different stops the class room cars are thrown open and forty-minute illustrated talks are given. The work is carried on in conjunction with the Ohio State College of Agriculture and the State Experimental Station.

One of last Sunday's Pittsburg papers stated that a basketball captain had been elected for next year at Penn State. This was a mistake, which was later corrected in the same paper, and the election will be held at the varsity banquet in the near future.

The recent book entitled "Gas Power," by F. E. Junge, the recognized German authority in that subject, contains certain writings of Professor A. J. Wood covering the theoretical analysis of some of the gas engine cycles.

The annual inspection of the cadet regiment will be conducted this year by Captain George H. Shelton, of the General Staff, U. S. A., and will occur during the latter part of May, probably about the 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dunn, of Youngstown, Ohio, are spending a few days with W. T. Dunn, '08, and his mother.

R. E. Geider is improving rapidly.
