Hurrah for Breezy Point.

The College girls' play in the Auditorium last Saturday night afforded a very "breezy" time for the many who went to "see the point." It was, indeed, a splendid show, and showed the effect of much hard work and study on the part of the entire cast.

The College Orchestra and the large audience which greeted the girls was a fine appreciation of the cause for which the play was given, and the hearty applause at all local hits showed that the efforts of the players were not in vain. All in the cast did very well and deserve much praise, but the work of Miss Harmon as the French maid, and Miss Bower as the workhouse waif deserves special mention.

The sophomores have challenged the freshmen to a test of baseball skill and committees have been appointed by both classes to arrange for an interclass game.
