

Dr. Evermann's Lecture.

The eighth and last lecture for the year in the Free Lecture Course will be delivered in the Auditorium at 8:15 o'clock on Monday evening, May 25, by Dr. Barton Warren Evermann of Washington, D. C. The title of his lecture is "To the Tip-top of the United States by Pack-train in Quest of the Golden Trout." It will be illustrated by numerous lantern slides.

Dr. Evermann has been connected with the United States Bureau of Fisheries for the past twenty years, and is one of the foremost authorities in his special field. With President David Starr Jordan he has written an exhaustive treatise in four volumes on "The Fishes of North and Middle America." He is the author of a dozen other books—some scientific, some popular in character—on natural history subjects and on the distribution, cultivation, and protection of game and fish in the United States. During the past few years he has delivered courses of lectures at Leland Stanford, Cornell, and Yale.
