No Baseball Games.

The weather of the past week has proved most unfavorable for baseball. On Thursday the team went to Pittsburg where games were scheduled for Friday and Saturday with W. U. P. and Carnegie Tech. Both of these games were prevented by rain, and the team was compelled to return on Monday without having crossed bats with either of the Pittsburg teams. Tuesday's game with Villanova was cancelled by the latter, so that the only game of the week was that played by the Reserves against Bellefonte Academy.

Buckhout and daughter Caroline left last week for Holyoke, Mass., where will they spend two weeks with the former's son Albert. They will then attend the graduation of Miss Margaret at Vassar College, after which they will go to Pleasantville, N. Y. for the wedding.
