

of the longest hits ever made on Juniata field, and it seemed that the Reserves would have won out, as Minich was pitching just as effective ball as he had done the day before.

The Reserves' line-up was the same in these two games as in the Juniata game on Beaver field, except that Elliott caught and Minich pitched.

ALUMNI.

W. G. Heckathorne, '06, has been transferred from the Chicago office of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul R. R. to the field inspection force on the Pacific Coast extension line. The latter is one of the most extensive and difficult pieces of railroad work in the United States at present, having an elaborate system of tunnels, viaducts, and bridges through the Rockies. Among those who have worked on this extension are T. C. Jenkins, '02, C. L. Armsby, '04, W. D. Lowe, '06, and W. J. Garrison, '07.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Prof. F. E. Foss of Carnegie Tech. was in town last week.

P. B. Bennetch, '09, has recovered rapidly and is again able to resume work.

Rev. C. C. Snavely of the local Methodist church will preach in the Auditorium on Sunday morning.

The 1910 Farmer baseball team with a number of rooters went to Center Hall on Saturday where a game was played with the crack organization of that place. On account of rain only four innings were played, the Farmers losing by the score of 6-2. The Grange festival in the evening was well patronized by the visitors.

In connection with the question of hazing, the Latin Club, which includes all the Rorto Rican and Cuban students in college, has de-

The 'Varsity Backstop

A Catcher on a college nine cannot be too careful about the Mitt he uses—the Big Game may depend on his ability to hold the ball. The majority of 'Varsity Backstops, like the majority of the great League Catchers, use
