EDITORIAL.

With the Bucknell game only about three weeks off, it is not too early to make plans for entertaining the students who will undoubtedly accompany the visiting team on their trip here. One thing is certain; our visitors should not be charged seventy-five cents for transportation from Lemont. Why can not arrangements be made to bring them up from the Pennsylvania station for nothing? Any courtesy which we can show them will be appreciated, and will help to promote better feeling between the two institutions.

The Collegian is glad at any time to publish news concerning the work of the various county clubs. We believe that a great deal can be accomplished throughout the state by the clubs in the work of promoting the interests of the College. Just now the clubs are trying to induce as many men as possible to go home for the election. During the holiday season many dinners will be held throughout the state and men will doubtless be influenced to come here next year. Aside from the good which may come in such ways as we have suggested, there is a pleasure in coming together occasionally with the men from our home county.

At the last meeting of the Collegian board, Dale R. Mason '11, and C. F. Preston, '11, were elected to the editorial and the business staff, respectively, of the paper. The former has had charge of the athletic department of the paper for several issues, and the latter has assisted the business staff for about the same length of time. Both are therefore familiar with the work. We are glad to place their names upon the list of editors, and feel that the paper is strengthened by their election.

We notice in looking over the papers from other colleges, many songs and yells that are written to be used at football games. State used to have new songs every year. Why can we not have them this year? The Collegian is anxious to help in bringing out new songs, and if anyone can write a song for the Bucknell game which is worth bringing to the attention of the student body, we shall be glad to publish it.

Great Activity in Real Estate.

The growth of the College, especially during the past year, has caused great activity in real estate transactions, and property values have increased rapidly within the last few months. Among recent large deals has been the purchase of the Andrews farm, adjoining State College, by Prof. I. L. Foster and J. Laird Holmes. The land will be laid out in building lots. The Hamilton farm, which lies just outside of town has also been platted and lots are being sold. The Foster farms southeast of town are being sold off rapidly.

Action has been begun to include several of these additions in the borough, and it will probably not be long before Greater State College will be a reality.

Resolutions.

Whereas Almighty God, in his infinite wisdom, has seen fit to call to Himself the soul of the father of our friend and classmate, William Fuhs, be it therefore

Resolved, that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to his family in their bereavement; and be it further

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be published in the State Collegian.
