

choice location by writing now to Ray H. Smith, '05, 2324 Farmers Bank Building, Pittsburg, and enclosing cash or money order. No checks will be received. The grandstand seats are $1.50 each and those in the boxes $2.00 (each box holds 8 persons,) while the fifty-cent "student tickets" in the cheering section will not only be sold here before the team leaves for Pittsburg but up to the afternoon of the game, at the Fort Pitt Hotel, Pittsburg.

The Pittsburg team won last year for the second time in its history and we must get enough noise makers in the Smoky City on Thanksgiving to make defeat impossible this time.

Camera Club To Be Reorganized.

It is likely that the Camera Club, which proved so successful last year, will be reorganized and that work will be conducted along similar lines this year. Largely at the suggestion of President Sparks, a meeting of the club was called last week, and six members responded. It was then decided to invite all members of the college who are interested in photography as an art to apply for membership. A second meeting will be held in the Engineering building Friday evening, and all interested in the subject are invited to be present.
