

LIBRARY NOTES.

The library has received a copy of a newspaper dated 1800 which contains an account of the death and burial of George Washington. It is the gift of C. Henry, '09.

The theses of last year's graduating class have been returned to the library from the binders.

The Historians' History of the World has been donated to the library by Prof. Niederhauser. This thoughtful and valuable gift will be much appreciated by all who use the library. These books will shortly be placed in the reference room.

A new steel book case has been set up in the center of the engineering alcove. This will allow a rearrangement of the engineering books and the addition of many new ones. Two of the upstairs alcoves in the west corner of the library have been fitted up with new cases; and one will be used exclusively for works on Pennsylvania history, including many valuable books donated by General Beaver. The other room will contain the patent office reports from different countries and a file of industrial catalogues.

COLLEGE NOTES.

President Sparks will represent The Pennsylvania State College at the meeting of the Middle States College Association at Lancaster on Friday and Saturday following Thanksgiving.

A meeting of the Board of Trustees of the college has been called for the evening of Pennsylvania Day to consider routine business.

The regular meeting of the general faculty which was to have been held this evening will be postponed. A special meeting will be held at a later date.
