Owing to the fact that so many items came in late that could not be omitted, it has been deemed advisable to leave out the editorial and the calendar this week.

An Appreciation.

The following letter has been received by President Sparks from General Wiley, who inspected the cadet regiment on Pennsylvania Day.

"In the short time which I had the pleasure of being at your most excellent college I enjoyed myself to the limit, and regret that I did not have more time to look over your institution.

"This was my first visit and I was so thoroughly surprised at the extent and magnitude and excellence of your place that I am from this on proud of The Pennsylvania State College.

"I trust you will overlook the unceremonious and hasty manner in which I departed without paying the respects due to you.

"Colonel Jefferies and myself are greatly indebted to Captain and Mrs. Hay for the warmth of their hospitality."

Week of Prayer.

It has been decided to change the observance of the Week of Prayer from the second week in January to the week beginning December 7th. In order to give special interest to exercises of the week, an invitation has been extended to the Rev. J. W. Smith, of Warren, Pennsylvania, to spend the week at the college and hold exercises each evening at 6:15 in the Old Chapel. Dr. Smith will be remembered as having preached a most acceptable sermon for us on October 11 of this year and his consent to return for the Week of Prayer will be good news to the entire student body. He will be the guest of Professor Foster while here. Further announcement of the services will be made later.

The Interclass Game.

Last Friday's clash between the Sophomores and Freshmen abounded in clean tackling, good punting, spectacular individual work, and hard, fast football the whole way through. The barring of varsity men did not seem to injure the game in the least.

The freshmen had the better of the argument and the sophomores must rest satisfied in preventing a score by the green capped 1912 men. It must be acknowledged that the new team in its first interclass struggle was particularly fortunate in recovering fumbles, yet the freshman line appeared to be the stronger and with the wonderful defensive work of Harlow and the punting and sprints of Doster, it is certain that 1912 has good reason to congratulate its sturdy eleven.

Workman punted well during the second half and Estep, Lynch,

Forsythe and Wheeler also made good plays for the second year eleven. During the last half of the game Doster made two attempts at field goals; one was blocked and the other failed by several yards. The pigskin was generally in sophomore territory. The freshman ends, James, Du Barry and Yost were always down quickly on punts and not only their tackling, but it seemed every player's tackling, was sure. Henwood and Harlow repeatedly broke through and brought down the runner for no gain. The sophomore backfield was probably the stronger but the freshmen possessed a wonderfully strong line.

House Dances.

The Pennsylvania Day festivities started on Thursday night with dances in the several fraternity houses. There were parties at the following houses: Phi Gamma Delta, Beta Theta Pi, Phi Kappa Sigma, Sigma Chi, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Sigma Kappa, Theta Xi, University Club, and Theta Psi. The Phi Delta Thetas did not hold a house party because nearly the entire chapter was in Pittsburgh attending a fraternity convention.

Y. M. C. A. Entertainment.

The concert Saturday night by Schildkret's Hungarian Orchestra was very good. The program was well selected; and if it seemed a little long to some, that probably was due to the fact that nearly everybody in the audience was rather tired. The music was certainly of a very high order.
